Dear Mr Lehane

Thank you for consulting Transport for London (TfL) on proposed revisions to the Council's Licensing Policy.

There are occasions when licensed activities can have a significant impact upon the transport network or require additional transport capacity or services. Whilst most such uses would be the subject of a planning application on which TfL would be consulted, temporary events in particular may not require permission.

Therefore TfL would request that it is consulted on all licence applications which in the opinion of the Council could have significant transport impacts or requirements, and on which TfL has not been consulted by the Council as local planning authority

Yours sincerely

Paul

Whilst the proposed changes seem sensible (especially the section allowing a limited number of late TEN's to be made), I was hoping that you could amend your records as [REDACTED] left the Club 2 years ago and the Managers Flat is now occupied by [REDACTED] who is our House Manager.

Thanks

Simon

Dear Mr Lehane,

We have scanned the document overall, with particular reference to Premises Certificates, and have no specific comments.

Yours sincerely
