

London Borough of Bromley

PART 1 - PUBLIC

Briefing for Education Policy Development and Scrutiny Committee
Tuesday 12 November 2013

OFSTED REPORTS AND FOLLOW UP ITEMS ON UNDER PERFORMING SCHOOLS

Contact Officer: Nina Newell, Head of Schools and Early Years Quality Assurance and Commissioning E-mail: nina.newell@bromley.gov.uk

Chief Officer: Terry Parkin Executive Director of Education, Care & Health Services

1. Purpose of the briefing

To provide an update on the schools identified as underperforming in the last briefing report dated September 2013.

To provide an updated list of Ofsted gradings and details from recent Ofsted visits. Plus any recent inspection activity if relevant

2. The Briefing

2.1 Ofsted Inspections

Since the last report there have been three further Ofsted Inspections and one Ofsted monitoring inspection visit. The report for Unicorn Primary School inspected in July 2013 has now been published and is listed below. The judgements are as follows:-

2.1.1 Unicorn Primary School was judged good - previously good

2.1.2 Burnt Ash Primary School – was judged good – previously satisfactory

2.1.3 Holy Innocents Catholic Primary School – report not yet published.

2.1.4 Oak Lodge Primary School was judged good – previously Satisfactory

Detail of Ofsted gradings for all Bromley maintained schools is attached at Appendix 1.

2.2 Monitoring Visits

There has been one Ofsted Monitoring Visit at the following school: St Mary Cray.

Key Issues for Special Measures and Requires Improvement Schools, along with outcomes of HMI monitoring visits, are included at Appendix 2.

Ofsted Inspection Outcomes of Academy Schools are included at Appendix 3.