Minute Number/Title	Matters Arising	Update
Minute 16 Apologies for absence 17th June 2021	The Assistant Director for Public Protection and Enforcement would contact members of the Board to remind them of the statutory responsibilities of the Board and of the importance of attending meetings.	This has been actioned and the matter is closed
Minute 20 Safer Neighbourhoods 17th June 2021	The contribution from the LFB would be noted in future updates.	This has been actioned and a slot for the LFB to update the Board has been added to the agenda.
Minute 20 Safer Neighbourhoods 17th June 2021	Councillor Bance would refer a pub in the Penge area to the Head of Trading Standards and Commercial Regulation.	The Head of Trading Standards and Commercial Regulation spoke to Cllr Bance. There had been some evidence of an improvement with the management of the pub and so there is no requirement to progress further at this point.
Minute 20 Safer Neighbourhoods 17th June 2021	The police would issue CPNs as appropriate when dealing with aggressive begging in Bromley High Street.	An update will be provided at the meeting.
Minute 20 Safer Neighbourhoods 17th June 2021	The LBB Head of Early Intervention and Family Support would update the Board in matters with respect to referrals where more support and referral generation to early intervention services was required.	The LBB Head of Early Intervention and Family Support will update the Board at the September meeting.
Minute 21 Key Issues and themes 17th June 2021	Chief Inspector Craig Knight should draft a briefing paper concerning his policing proposals based on the Cambridge Crime Harm Index. This paper should be ready for the meeting of the Safer Bromley Partnership in September.	The Chief Inspector will update the Board at the meeting.
Minute 22 VRAP Update 17th June 2021	The Assistant Director would disseminate a copy of Bromley's Violence Reduction Action Plan to the Board.	The VRAP document was disseminated to the Board on 9 th August and so this matter is now closed.

	The Assistant Director, subsequent to the presentation to the Partnership Reference Group, would disseminate the presentation to the Board, and would update the Board further at the September meeting.	The presentation to the Partnership Reference Group was also disseminated on 9 th August and so this matter is also now closed.
Minute 24 Crime Performance Dashboard 17th June 2021	Chief Inspector Craig Knight would provide the email contact details for Detective Inspector Dave Adams to the LBB Head of Service for Early Intervention and Family Support.	This information was provided and so the matter is now closed.
.Minute 24 Crime Performance Dashboard 17th June 2021	Chief Inspector Craig Knight would provide a breakdown of hate crime data to the Tenancy Specialist Manager (Clarion Housing).	This data has been supplied and the matter is now closed.
Minute 25 Emerging Issues 17th June 2021	The Neighbourhood Investment Manager (Clarion) should provide an update to the Board with respect to the work that Clarion was undertaking regarding violence affecting young people.	This will be expanded on at the September meeting. The Neighbourhood Investment Manager did endeavour to send a link to the Committee Clerk for dissemination. This link was in respect to Clarion's campaign called 'Hard Calls Save Lives'. This link was not disseminated as it was deemed unsafe by LBB's security systems.
