1. From Richard Edmonds to the Portfolio Holder for Transport, Highways and Road Safety

I am very concerned about dangerous vehicle speeds on College Road, Bromley, which are frequently well in excess of the 30mph limit. We now have a large nursery and playgroup on College Road with a large primary school just round the corner as well as shops and other businesses alongside mixed residential accommodation. Lots of pedestrians use and cross the road together with an increasing number of cyclists.

Enforcement of the current 30mph limit is essential before another serious or fatal accident occurs. Will the Council give this urgent attention?

Reply:

Speed enforcement remains the responsibility of the Police. The Council have no powers of enforcement for speeding.

I suggest you talk to the Plaistow Community Action Panel which sets local police priorities.
