2 COMMENTARY

2.1 At the Health & Wellbeing Strategy workshop held on 8th December 2022, members of the Board discussed in small groups the potential priority areas for the next publication of the Health & Wellbeing Strategy to focus on.

2.2 The purpose of this paper is to outline a proposed structure for the new Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy.

2.3 The proposed structure is as follows:

Foreword.

Contents.

Introduction.

What's happened since the last strategy?

Our process to develop this Strategy.

Our Vision / Ambition (linking to the ICS strategy and ICB priorities).

Our Priorities – overview of each priority area (Improving Health and Wellbeing of young people; Improving Health and Wellbeing of Adults; Disease prevention and helping people to stay well).

Our Implementation plan (linking to the ICS strategy and ICB priorities).

How we will measure progress (linking to the ICS strategy and ICB priorities).

2.4 The plan is to have 3 overarching priority areas:

1. Improving Health and Wellbeing of young people (to include obesity, youth violence, adolescent mental health).
2. Improving Health and Wellbeing of Adults (to include obesity, diabetes, dementia, mental health, substance misuse).
3. Disease prevention and helping people to stay well (linking with our ICB prevention priority and achieving this through our vital 5 work).

2.5 Monitoring the areas listed in section 2.4 above will be achieved by the following:

1. For the 'Improving Health and Wellbeing of young people' priority area it is suggested that the Children's Executive Board to lead on this.
2. For the 'Improving Health and Wellbeing of Adults' priority we already have groups set up and identified whom it is suggested take a lead on each of these are, for example, the Diabetes Partnership Group, the Bromley Obesity Working Group, Bromley Mental Health and Wellbeing Partnership Board, Combatting Drugs and Alcohol Partnership Board.
3. For the 'Disease Prevention and helping people to stay well' priority this is work that we are currently doing with the ICB and so will be picked up in these workstreams.

We will be asking these groups about their priorities and asking them to include the Health and Wellbeing Strategy priorities into their action plans.

2.6 The Public Health Team will work on the development of the new strategy over the summer and propose to bring a draft of the strategy to the Health and Wellbeing Board meeting on 21st September 2023
