1.3 How the Council operates

The Council is composed of 58 Councillors elected every four years. Councillors are democratically accountable ~~to the whole community and owe particular responsibilities~~ to the residents of their Ward. The overriding duty of Councillors is to the whole community, but they have a special duty to their constituents, ~~including those who did not vote for them.~~ The names and addresses of all Councillors are published in this Chapter and on the Council's website.

Councillors have to agree to follow a code of conduct to ensure high standards in the way they undertake their duties. The Standards Committee is responsible for ensuring that training and advice is given on the Code of Conduct ~~and in dealing with complaints about breaches of the Code.~~

All Councillors meet together as the Council. Meetings of the Council are normally open to the public. Here Councillors decide the Council's overall policies and set the budget each year. The Council will elect the Leader of the Council Executive at the Annual Meeting immediately following the ordinary election of who in turn appoints and provides leadership to an Executive ~~all Councillors who will normally hold office until the day of the Annual Meeting following from the next ordinary election of all Councillors.~~ The Executive will consist of the following:-

- the Executive Leader;
- at least 2 but not more than 9 Councillors appointed by the Leader.

The Council holds the Executive to account by appointing Policy Development and Scrutiny Committees to question decisions and to propose policy changes.

~~The Council will consider reports from the Policy Development and Scrutiny Committees (see Page 4 under "Overview and Scrutiny") where the Executive is believed to have taken a decision outside the powers of the Executive such as a decision taken contrary to policy or budget. In other cases, decisions of the Executive may be "called in" for scrutiny before being implemented.~~

The Council will also appoint central Committees to deal with development control, licensing, registration and other functions which cannot be undertaken by the Executive.

A Standards Committee ~~composed of non-Executive Councillors~~ will monitor the maintenance of high standards of conduct in all the Council's activities.

The procedure for Council meetings is set out in Chapter 2 of this constitution.

1.4 How decisions are made -

The Executive

The Executive is the part of the Council which is responsible for most day-to-day decisions. ~~The Executive is made up of a Leader and between two and nine Councillors.~~ The full Council elects the Leader who appoints all other members of the Executive. When key decisions are to be discussed or made, these are published in the Executive's forward plan in so far as they can be anticipated. Meetings of ~~If these key decisions are to be discussed~~

~~with Council officers at a meeting of~~ the Executive, ~~this~~ will generally be open for the public to attend except where personal or confidential matters are being discussed. The Executive has to make decisions which are in line with the Council's overall policies and budget. If it wishes to make a decision which is outside the budget or policy framework, this must be referred to the Council as a whole to decide.

How decisions are made – Council Functions

Whilst most decisions are taken by the Executive meeting together (ie by the Cabinet or by individual Portfolio holders) a number of important decisions are also taken by the full Council or by Committees or Sub-Committees of the Council eg planning and licensing applications.

1.6 Policy Development ~~Overview~~ and Scrutiny

There are 6 ~~Committees called~~ Policy Development and Scrutiny Committees. ~~They who~~ support the work of the Executive and the Council as a whole. They have a major role in policy development and scrutinise the decisions of the Executive. They make reports and recommendations which advise the Executive and the Council as a whole on its policies, budget and service delivery. Policy Development and Scrutiny Committees also monitor the decisions of the Executive. They can 'call-in' a decision which has been made by the Executive but not yet implemented. This enables them to consider whether the decision is appropriate. They may recommend that the Executive reconsider the decision. They may also be consulted by the Executive or the Council on forthcoming decisions and the development of policy.

1.7 The Council's Staff

The Council has people working for it (called 'officers') to give advice, implement decisions and manage the day-to-day delivery of its services.
