1. Reason for report

- 1.1 The attached report from the Head of Food Safety, Occupational Safety and Licensing (Appendix A), was submitted for consideration by the General Purposes and Licensing Committee at its meeting held on 28 July 2010. Members fully supported the recommendations within the report and, in accordance with procedure, approval is now sought from Council to formally adopt the provisions. The Minute of the meeting relating to this matter is attached as Appendix B for background information – Members sought a further report on the policy for determining the number of sex establishments, standard licensing conditions and fees for sex establishments. This was considered by the General Purposes and Licensing Committee on 27th September 2010 and the Executive on 29th September 2010 – the report and minutes are attached as Appendices C and D.
